Catholic Daughters Plan Meeting, Tell Recent Activities

Grand Regent Mrs. Frances Forester will preside at the business meeting of Court St. Catholic Daughters of America, on Monday evening, April 12.

The recent social meeting was an enjoyable occasion for members and guests who heard James T. Yelton, proprietor of Torrance Flower Shop, in an informal discussion of the principles of arranging flowers for home use.

He illustrated his ideas by making several beautiful arrangements which were later received by members of the audience.

Mrs. Forester then introduced John Hertert, popular baritone, who presented a class of vocal students and George Malloy, pianist, who accompanies him in his concert appearances.

The program showed fine training as well as a great deal of talent, in serious selections blended with the sparkle of those of humorous vein. The selections follow:

"All For You" (Herbert) and "Make Believe" (Jerome Kern), soprano solos by Lou Alice Donohue; "O Sole Mio" and "One Alone" (Romberg) solos by Mack Clayton, tenor; "Vagabond King Waltz" (Primm) a duet by Barbara and Mack Clayton; "I Know a Lovely Garden" and "On Sweet Mysterly Life" (Herbert).

John Herbert then sang "Spanish Granada" (Laro), "David and Goliath," spiritual and "McNamara's Band."

"The Creation" reading by Jorene Jones, drama student at City College, concluded the program.

Father P. J. McGuinness, C.M.A. chaplain, then introduced his new assistant pastor, Rev. Dominic Daly.
